Tribeca Investment Partners Appoints Alex Lupis as Head of Distribution

Alex Lupis, Head of Distribution

SYDNEY [7 December 2022] - Tribeca Investment Partners is pleased to announce the appointment of Alex Lupis as Head of Distribution. Based in the firm's Sydney office, Alex will be responsible for leading Tribeca's distribution function, representing the firm's fund offerings across equities, credit, natural resources and carbon strategies along with maintaining strong relationships with the firm's client base of institutional investors and financial intermediaries.

Alex was most recently Managing Director, Global Head of Global Investor Access and Global Co-Head of ESG Sales at HSBC in Hong Kong within the bank's Markets division. During his time at HSBC, Alex also led the client management function globally for HSBC's institutional clients. Earlier in his career Alex held a similar role at Citi, where he oversaw the bank's corporate marketing and origination for its Asian equity clients, based in Hong Kong and New York.

This strategic appointment comes at a time of growth for Tribeca, with key senior appointments made over the last year and the launch of several specialized, actively managed strategies focused on emerging asset classes such as Asian credit and carbon credits.

In discussing the appointment, Tribeca's Chief Executive Officer, Adam Lavis commented, "We are excited to welcome Alex to Tribeca. His extensive leadership and global experience at some of the world's leading financial firms, will be critical as Tribeca grows its business within Australia and internationally. Alex also brings a wealth of experience in the field of ESG investing and Tribeca looks forward to being able to leverage his expertise in developing solutions and strategies for our clients and partners in this area".
